

Zooey Tinberg

June 6, 2023

I rescued the most beautiful kitten in September 2014. She was the first friend I had after moving to Columbus. Zooey was with me through the highs and lows of the last nine years. She caught all the bugs in my apartment and always tried to sneak a taste of whatever food was on the table. I will miss her evening snuggles, constant purrs, and boops on the nose. I hope she is having fun with all my childhood kitties - Daphne puppy and I miss her, but we know we'll get to snuggle together again someday. We love you, Zooey!
